QUEEN OF BULGARIA

Nursing Wounded Men While Her Husband Is at the Front.

Queen Eleanor of Bulgaria, who has been at Philippopolis, Bulgaria, for the last few days, has assumed the dress of an ordinary nurse and is attending the sick and wounded arriving from battlefields. The large waiting room at the railroad station has been converted into a reception room for the wounded, and from there the men are assigned to the various hospitals.

Sherman's Remains Rest In the Vault Funeral Today

Imposing Funeral Cortage at Utica This Afternoon.

SHORT, IMPRESSIVE SERVICES

President Taft and Members of His Cabinet, Members of Congress and Other Prominent Persons Participate in the Last Sad Rites—Remains to Remain in Vault Pending Arrangements for Burial.

Utica, N. Y., Nov. 2.—President Taft arrived here shortly after 1 o'clock this afternoon and was driven from the station directly to the home of the late vice president, James S. Sherman.

Large crowds had assembled at the station and before the Sherman residence.

With bared heads the silent throngs saluted the chief magistrate.

The private services at the house for the family were conducted by Dr. Holden of the Dutch Reformed church, of which Mr. Sherman was for many years the treasurer and active supporter. A distinguished gathering attended the services, which were impressive.

The services at the First Presbyterian church began at 2 o'clock and were in charge of the Rev. M. W. Stryker, president of Hamilton college. Mr. Sherman and Dr. Stryker were classmates at Hamilton college and members of the same college fraternity.

Dr. Stryker was assisted by Dr. Holden. The services opened with song by an augmented choir of the church, and after reading of the Scriptures by Dr. Holden, Dr. Stryker delivered a brief eulogy of the vice president. Dr. Holden pronounced the benediction.

President Taft occupied the first pew to the left center aisle. With him were his military aids and other members of his party. To the left of the nation's chief executive were seated the honorary bearers and across the aisle were the active bearers.

The block of pews back of the one occupied by the president was occupied by senators, congressmen, cabinet officers and members of the Utica organizations that were represented at the funeral. On the right side of

GENERAL ADVANCE ORDERED

Montenegro Attack on Scutari Seems to Have Suffered a Serious Check. Greeks Blow Up a Turkish Warship. Many of the Crew Being Killed—Questions Arise That Endanger the Peace of Europe.

London, Nov. 2.—Smoke from Bulgarian cannons is hanging over the Oriental railroad at Tchataldja. Twenty-five miles down the valley through which that railroad twists are the minarets of Constantinople. Far behind, to the northwest of the victorious Bulgars, their artillery is hammering away at the fort of Adrianople, and to the southwest of the besieged city the Bulgarian troops are tramping through the streets of Demotika.

Somewhere between Adrianople and the Ottoman capital, along the line of the torn-up railroad, is what is left of the army of Nazim Pasha, if that Turkish commander and war minister is not indeed already captured.

He or his representatives send word to Constantinople that the right wing of his army at Viza, on a line with Adrianople to the east, is marching north with their backs to the Black sea. Mukhtar Pasha, say these reports, has defeated a Bulgarian column and many guns and much ammunition has fallen into his hands. The Turks say they have captured the important town of Bunarhisser, near Kirk Killise.

Dispatches from Ottoman sources say that the Bulgars are being hemmed in on four sides in the country to the northeast of Adrianople, and that the Turks have been successful all along the line.

At Adrianople the Bulgarians offered to let all the civilians leave the town, and this offer was refused by the Turkish commander.

Word comes from the Greeks that one of their torpedo boats, in the darkness that hung over the Gulf of Salonika, blew up a Turkish cruiser, killing many of the crew.

The Montenegrin attack on Scutari that has been marked by such stubborn fighting on both sides seems to have suffered a serious check.

In the meantime in the chancelleries the success of the allies is looked upon with amazement and in some quarters with chagrin. Should the Turkish capital fall there will immediately arise questions pregnant with dangers to the peace of Europe. Austria's intervention and the immediate response of Russia are two things that caused a long conference at Paris between M.

Toincare and the representatives of the powers.

BLOODIEST BATTLE OF WAR

Military Expert Says Bulgarians Display Contempt For Death.

London, Nov. 2.—The bloodiest battle that has taken place around Adrianople was raging on Thursday. Lieutenant Wagner sent this about the fighting:

"Bulgarian siege batteries posted at Kadikoi and on the heights beyond on Wednesday morning the bombardment of the Turkish works at Scheitantoja, Karagorjabja and Hadsirliktabja, belonging to a group on the northwest front of Adrianople. They are among the strongest of the entire fortress. They are of modern construction, are relatively well armed and have bombproof shelters. Their capture would bring about the fall of Adrianople.

"The bombardment lasted eight hours and was then resumed after an hour's interval. The effect of the Bulgarian guns was to draw a considerable reply from the Turkish guns, which was ineffective.

"Meanwhile the Bulgarian infantry advanced to attack Marash and Karaghosh. The Turkish garrison have made numerous sorties on this front since last night and there is a fearful battle.

"It is raging with varying success at the bridge over the Maritza river at Marash. The Turks have displayed extraordinary stubbornness and have brought up fresh forces.

"This is the most sanguinary battle the Bulgarians have had before Adrianople. They are displaying an admirable contempt for death. This is especially so in the case of the reserves, who are under fire for the first time."

CLAIMS GREAT VICTORIES

Turkish Commander Sends In Rosy Reports From Front.

Constantinople, Nov. 2.—The Turkish army has recaptured the town of Bunarhisser from the Bulgarians and also has defeated the Bulgars in the vicinity of Viza, according to dispatches received here from Nazim Pasha, commander-in-chief of the Turkish forces. Nazim's dispatches declare the Bulgarian losses were heavy and that all the Turkish army corps have now been ordered to advance. The commander adds that the Bulgarian army is hemmed in.

MRS. CONWAY TELLS STORY OF THE CRIME

"Burlesque Queen" Breaks Down and Makes Confession.

ROBBERY THE ALLEGED MOTIVE

Revelations Reputed by the Chicago Police to Have Been Made by Mrs. Conway in Connection With the Murder of Miss Singer of Baltimore—Accused Husband in Ignorance of the Confession.

Chicago, Nov. 2.—Under a rapid fire of questions by detectives, Lillian Beatrice Ryall-Conway, sometimes called the "queen of burlesque," broke down and confessed that her husband, Charles Conway, murdered Miss Sophia G. Singer of Baltimore last Monday night in a boarding house in Indiana avenue, this city. Robbery was the motive. But murder was not intended. The "wooden-footed clown" of circus fame merely intended to stun the girl, that she could raise no outcry while Mrs. Conway and her husband made their escape, the woman told the police.

That his wife has confessed has not been told to Conway, who is being kept in solitary confinement at the Stanton avenue police station.

Mrs. Conway told the police that she was not an actual witness to the slaying, but told of hearing a scuffle between her husband and Miss Singer and seeing Miss Singer's body on the bed in the Conway bedroom just before they fled. She says her husband told her at that time that the girl was merely unconscious, and that they would better flee before she regained her senses. In her statement she says:

"Sophie and Conway got into a quarrel in Conway's bedroom. I left the bedroom and went into the dining room. Sophie was in her stocking feet and she had her shoes in her hand. She came in the room and sat on the bed to put on her shoes. In the meantime I had left the room. I was out of the room three minutes. When I returned I saw Sophie lying on the bed.

"My husband said, 'We'd better leave here; she's unconscious.' The woman said the handkerchief found around Miss Singer's neck was Conway's. 'He hit Sophie on the head with a billy made of a doorknob,' she said. Mrs. Conway said that while she knew her husband had no money before the murder, he had $35 after they left the house and fled.

Brought to Chicago from Lima, O., where they were arrested Thursday, Conway and his wife were taken first to detective headquarters and then to the Stanton avenue police station.

A dramatic scene in which William R. Warthen, who was to have married Miss Singer on Tuesday, and Mrs. Conway were the principals, followed the confession. The woman pleaded with Warthen for forgiveness, the police said, and begged him to kiss her, which he refused to do. Both were much affected.

Conservative Candidate Is Elected President of Cuba.

REPUBLICANS IMPATIENT

Want Committee to Name Sherman's Successor Before Election.

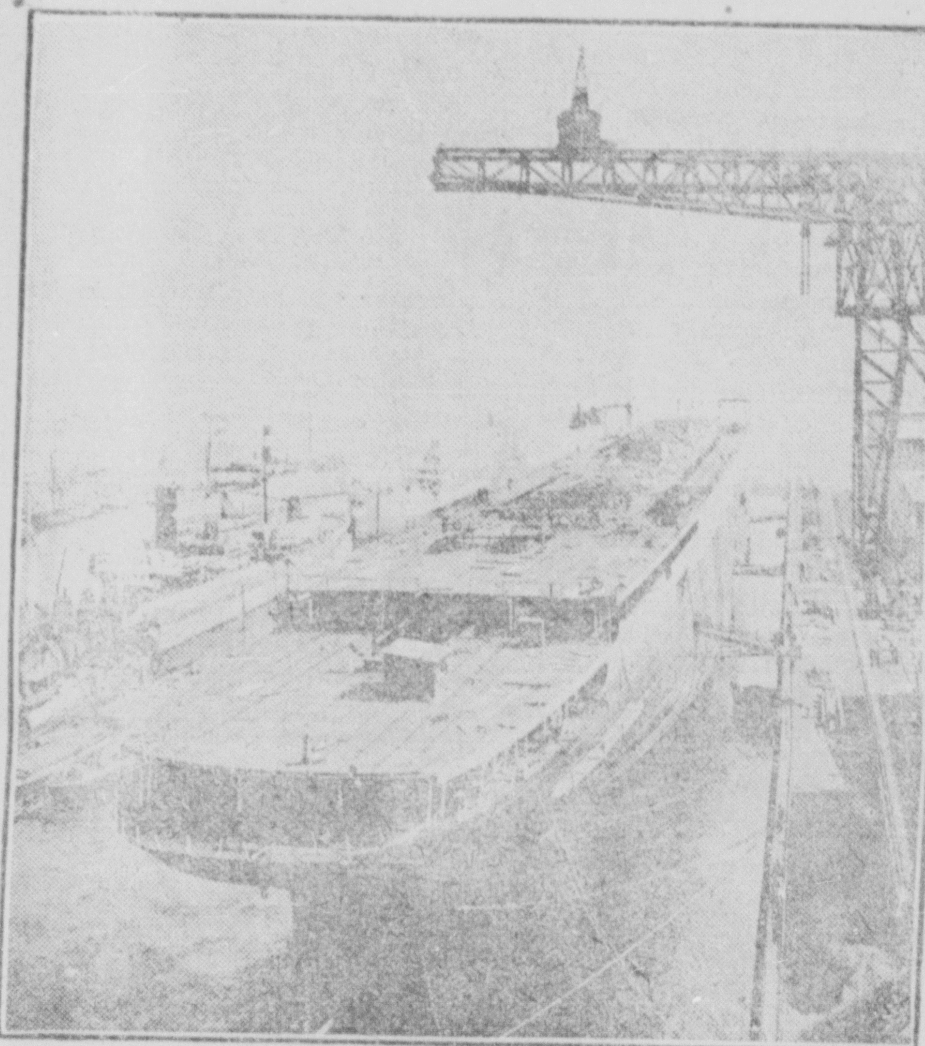

Washington, Nov. 2.—Much uneasiness is manifested by leading Republicans throughout the country because a successor to James S. Sherman as the nominee for vice president will not be named, according to the present notice, until after election. This anxiety is taking the form of telegrams to President Taft, Charles D. Hilles, chairman of the Republican national committee, and members of the cabinet.

The appeals are being addressed to the president and his managers urging them to get into communication with the members of the national committee and give the country some announcement before election day as to the name of the probable choice for second place on the ticket with Mr. Taft.

Carnegie Extends Hero Fund Idea.

Pittsburg, Nov. 2.—At the annual meeting of the Carnegie hero fund commission it was announced that Andrew Carnegie has established hero fund commissions in Italy, Norway and Denmark. The Italian commission has an endowment of $750,000 while Norway and Denmark are given an endowment of $125,000 each. There are now 10 nations having Carnegie hero commissions and the awards each year in these nations will, it is estimated, aggregate $1,000,000.

Largest Ship In the World Under Unique Bulkhead Test

A UNIQUE test has just been carried out aboard the Imperator to determine the strength of her bulkheads under extreme conditions. The Imperator, which is the largest ship in the world, is receiving the finishing touches at Hamburg. The vessel is divided by numerous longitudinal and transverse bulkheads which reach to the second deck, high above the water line. To improve the strength of these steel walls several of the compartments have been completely filled with water. The water was then pumped out, the largest fire engine in Europe being used for this purpose. The accompanying illustration shows the Imperator as she appears today with the great fire engine being lifted to her deck. The engine seems to be about the size of a watch chain in comparison with the enormous bulk of the great liner. The test proved that the bulkheads could readily withstand any pressure exerted against them.

LIFE LINE IS CARRIED TO VESSEL IN DISTRESS BY A FAST AEROPLANE

Aeroplane Carries Lifelines to Vessel in Distress.

Marshfield, Ore., Nov. 2.—The first attempt to use the aeroplane to carry lifelines to a distressed vessel was made by Aviator Christoffersen of Portland, who made two trips out over the gasoline schooner Osprey as she was pounding to pieces on the bar at the entrance to Coos bay. The Osprey turned turtle and Captain Johnson and five men on the schooner were drowned, although the tug Roscoe was standing by ready to give assistance.

Captain Tyler of the Roscoe threw lifelines over the Osprey, but the doomed men appeared too chilled to grasp them. Finally he threw a line around Captain Johnson and would have hauled him to safety, but Johnson seemed distracted, for he cast the line loose and went under as his vessel turned turtle.

Aviator Christoffersen demonstrated clearly the great value of an aeroplane in carrying a line to any vessel in distress. He sailed over the Osprey twice, but was unable to give any assistance.

SECOND BULL MOOSE RALLY

Demonstration in Madison Square Garden For the State Ticket.

New York, Nov. 2.—The second great Progressive rally in Madison Square Garden within 48 hours, with Theodore Roosevelt as guest of honor, opened with cheering that lasted 20 minutes from the time Oscar S. Straus, candidate for governor of New York, came on the platform. The meeting was a demonstration in favor of the Progressive state ticket. Oscar Straus' speech was an attack on his opponent for governor, William Sulzer.

PEACE REIGNS IN CUBAN CONTEST

Menocal, Conservative, Elected President of the Isle.

Havana, Nov. 2.—The Cuban presidential election passed off quietly. There was no important disturbance anywhere.

The returns are coming in slowly. Both sides are claiming the victory, but it seems certain that the Conservatives, whose candidate is General Menocal, have won. The province of Havana is still doubtful, and Oriente and Pinar del Rio are still unknown quantities.

Hugh Gibson, the secretary of the American legation, called on Senor Sanguilly, the secretary of state and acting secretary of the interior, who is managing the elections. Senor Sanguilly told Secretary Gibson that affairs were quiet and very orderly all over the island.

The city of Havana looks like a military camp, there being 3,000 soldiers of infantry and cavalry patrolling the streets.

Election Joke Proves Fatal.

Chardon, O., Nov. 2.—Discussing election probabilities John Arnos, apparently in the best of health, dropped dead here. He had just cracked a political joke with C. G. Daniels and passed away with the laughter of the crowd ringing in his ears.

GREEDY HAND OF THE COAL BARONS CLOSES DOWN ON COAL SUPPLY

Worst Coal Famine in Years Extends Into This City, Where Great Shortage Exists.

MANY FAMILIES FORCED TO BURN WOOD OR COBS

Bins of Local Dealers Are Empty and Higher Prices Are Predicted Before Famine Is Ended.
Delay Is Blamed On the Gi-gantic Coal Trust.

Lucky indeed is the man who filled his coal bins with the precious black diamonds during the summer months, for now he has nothing to worry him about the great shortage of coal. At the present time one of the greatest coal famines in the history of the country is on, and indications are that it will become worse as the winter advances.

Right here in Washington the situation is really serious, and some of the dealers are unable to secure a ton of coal for their patrons who are clamoring in vain. It is no fault of the local dealer, but it is the fault of the men who own the coal mines and who are commonly known as coal barons, and who are evidently trying to force the price up from one to two or even three dollars on the ton before they let it get away from the mines.

The local situation has already become so serious that many families are forced to burn wood, or cobs while awaiting the arrival of the next coal shipments. It is almost impossible to obtain coal at any price, and scores of calls for coal have been turned down because the orders could not be filled from empty bins of the local dealers.

One dealer stated that coal ordered many days ago was still standing in the yards of the coal mine, and that there was no apparent shortage in the output of coal, but the railroads were simply holding it up until it suited their pleasure, or rather the pleasure of the Coal Barons to ship it to the dealer who had ordered it. The coal shortage is one complaint, but the lethargic railroads are really to blame, according to the dealer. And the railroads are also accused of holding up shipment because they are owned by the Coal Barons.

Within the past 30 days there has been an increase of $1 on the ton on practically all coal, and the cheapest grade, when obtainable, is $4 per ton. Lohrig and Hocking are $4

A Message to YOU, Mr. Voter

Don't forget that November 5th is election day, and I would like to have your support on that day for the office of Sheriff. It is easy to do, and you will feel better after having done it. All you will have to do is to put an X before my name and the judges and clerks will do the rest.

It is impossible for me to see all of my friends before that time, so I take this means of letting you know that I want the office and I can not get it without your support.

Thanking you for past favors, I remain,

Yours Truly,

P. H. CURTIN.

The situation is said to be much the same all over the country, and the famine is the worst in a decade, with every prospect of becoming more serious, while prices are expected to soar until they reach prohibitive figures. Naturally there is much complaint among dealers and consumers over the attitude of the trusts.

M. C. A. building and Herald news will also go directly to the Y. M. C. A. where announcement will be made. The big gymnasium will provide seating capacity for hundreds and the High school "Lantern" will be used to flash the messages on a screen inside the building.

In addition to this a special telephone wire will connect the Y. M. C. A. directly with The Herald office and all local news and expert estimates will be telephoned by special messenger as soon as received at The Herald office.

The people of Washington and Fayette country are given a choice of the two places by the completion of these arrangements.

Nothing has been left undone to gather the news and provide for the comfort and convenience of the people anxious to receive it.

Will Repair Bridge Floor

The West Temple street bridge is in very bad condition, and is really dangerous for heavy loads to pass over, owing to the condition of the old floor, which has been crumbling away for some time.

The County Commissioners are taking steps to have the old floor replaced with a new one, and hope to have the work done before bad weather arrives.

Mrs. Morris West was brought from her home in Leesburg to the Podson hospital in a serious condition by her physician, Dr. Roades, this week. Dr. G. S. Hodson performed a major operation, from which Mrs. West is recovering nicely with excellent prospects for complete recovery.

Our neighboring town of Leesburg has sent quite a number to the Hodson hospital, and seems to appreciate the advantage of having a hospital within such easy reach.

CREAMERY SUBSCRIBERS MEET FOR ORGANIZATION

Committee Appointed and Everything Ready for Securing Lot and Building Modern Creamery. Seventy-three Subscribers and Who They Are.

Some fifty subscribers to the Butter factory enterprise met with Mr. R. H. Sheldon at the Probate Judge's office Friday afternoon and organized for business.

Mr. George Inskeep was made chairman of the meeting, and Mr. Ed Fite was chosen secretary. The election of an executive or building committee was then taken up, and resulted in the selection of Messrs. George Inskeep, Frank Haynes and Elmer B. Hukill as the committee who will see that the building and equipment comes up to the standard, as the company is to build and equip the plant and turn it over to the company which will later be organized to accept and operate it. All of the business was conducted with fairness to all.

It was decided by unanimous vote that the executive committee have power to employ a butter maker, either accepting one from the Burnap Building and Supply Company, or securing one elsewhere at their option.

Plans call for a frame building 28 by 54 feet, containing seven rooms and fully equipped with modern machinery, ready for business, the entire plant to cost $6500. However, the creamery at Chillicothe is constructed of veneered brick, and as the additional cost would be $500, the executive committee was empowered to erect a brick structure if such a building was desired, the total cost to be $7,000. There are 73 subscribers to the enterprise, each for $100.

A committee consisting of Messrs. Phil Rothrock, Chas. Ford, A. C. McCoy, W. W. Fenner and E. L. Bush was appointed to perfect plans for incorporation, so that when the building is completed and equipped, an incorporated company will be ready to receive it, and it was further decided that the incorporated name should be The Fayette County Creamery company.

It was suggested that a trade mark for the brand of butter manufactured be chosen, and "Paint Valley" was first suggested. "Sugar Valley" was also suggested, but the former apparently met with greater favor, as the beautiful fertile Paint creek valley is widely known. However no definite trade mark was decided upon.

Mr. R. H. Sheldon, who organized the company, has made many friends and has proven himself a splendid man for the work. His ready success here was due to hard work and the fact that his proposition was regarded as a good one from the first. It is the intention of the Burnap Company to proceed at once with the construction of the plant, just as soon as a location is found.

The members of the company are scattered throughout the county, and are as follows: C. H. Armstrong, E. B. Hukill, Clark Post, G. W. Baker, Wm. Hardway, Jennie Davidson, Armetha Lieuellen, Dr. Florence Rankin, Hugh K. Stewart, Guy Thompson, J. R. Tharp, Wallace

Frank Koetsch, a laborer, was put on trial at Graz for his action in saving the life of a would-be suicide. He had found a man dangling from a tree, and had promptly cut him down and taken him to a hospital. The man recovered from the effects of the hanging, but complained of a scalp wound he had received when falling to the ground, and he brought a charge of personal injury by carelessness against the man who saved his life. Koetsch was acquitted, but declared he would take care never to act the Good Samaritan again.

IN SOCIETY

Miss Martha Couch delightfully entertained a number of her friends Halloween with a masquerade. Everything was appropriately planned, and decorated with autumn leaves, pumpkin lanterns and fodder. The evening was very excitingly spent with music, games, etc. The old witch and ghost assisted the hostess as reception committee. The old witch's den was mysterious and she did not fail to reveal the secrets of the past, present and future. At a late hour the guests assembled around the dining table where everything was a scene of beauty and a delicious two-course luncheon was served. Those present were Misses McClure, Woodland, Clark, Schriver, Holden, Foster, LaFollette, Brannon and Sheley, and Messrs. Moore, Stevens, Allen, Whiteside, Parker, Kinkead, Pugsley, Williams, Mobley, Wiley and Rothrock.

A number of Halloween festivities were carried over into Friday night and although a little belated were none the less enjoyed.

The Tau Mu Tau Sorority entertained at the home of Miss Dorothy Fullerton with a very elaborate 7 o'clock dinner, attended by Halloween appointments.

The Fullerton home presented a forest scene, branches of autumn boughs interlaced and through their bright colored leaves shone the glow of pumpkin faces. In the parlors were large white chrysanthemums.

The table, laid with eighteen covers, was extremely pretty and fantastic, glimpsed in the dim light of the jack o' lanterns.

An immense pumpkin face wreathed in garlands, formed central decoration, while at either end were smaller pumpkins, uncanny black bats swayed overhead and the souvenirs were black cats, the emblem of the sorority.

The six-course dinner included every delicacy. Seated at the table were nine of the T. M. T. girls, Misses Dorothy Fullerton, Ercel Porter, Ada Woodward, Edna Fenner, Mary Weaver, Lillian Davis, Mary Tysor, Ruth Craig, Marie Mobley. Messrs. Davis-Edwards, Howard Gray, Bliss Casey, Will Morgan, James Dunn, Hubert Murray, Burris Tharp, Robert Cullen and Jean Gribble.

A notably brilliant affair in Bloomingburg society was the reception tendered by Mr. J. Y. Stitt and daughter, Miss Ercel, to Mr. Stitt's son, Dr. H. L. Stitt and his bride, of this city, Friday night.

The decorations were of yellow and white chrysanthemums and greenery, with suggestions of Halloween prettily introduced.

There were 140 guests, among them from Washington circles, Dr. and Mrs. Stitt, Mrs. R. D. McClure, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brown, Mrs. Electa Selsor, Mrs. Huffman, Hon. and Mrs. J. M. Willis, Mrs. Vert Shoop, Miss Edith Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. Roy McClure, Misses Edith Hamm, Myrtle McCoy, Elizabeth Jenkins, Moody, Bess Kerr, Elizabeth Ballard, Nina Rowe, Dr. Harry Jenkins, Mr. Martin Cox and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wolfe (nee Margaret Brown), of Columbus.

The Hyperlan club celebrated Hallowe'en with a gay little dance at the Pythian castle. Palms, cut flowers and Halloween adornment beautified the ball room and a Halloween supper was served. Messrs. Whelpley and Miller furnished excellent music. Thirty couples out of the forty composing the club enjoyed the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hendryx delightfully entertained with a "theater party" last night, in honor of the twelfth birthday of their daughter, Elizabeth.

Eighteen little girls made up a gay party and thoroughly enjoyed an hour at the Empire theater, after which they were entertained at Peter Brown's ice cream parlor, ice cream, cake and candy providing the feast dearest of the youthful appetite.

Miss Alta Garringer gave a very pretty Halloween party at her home on the Chillicothe pike. Ghosts received at the door and ushered to the reception hall, where the evening's fun began with various Halloween games and contests.

The house was lighted with jack o' lanterns, and a yellow and black color scheme woven into Halloween decorations.

The ghosts served a supper in the dining room, on the tables were yellow candles and ropes of cranberries and popcorn overhead.

Miss Artie Gilmer won first prize, Miss Hazel Anders consolation in the pin contest, and Miss Townsley a small telephone in a "telephone contest."

Miss Mabel Collopy was capably in charge of the entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. De Valon entertained last evening with a seven o'clock dinner, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Bonham, of Washington C. H., Ohio, guests of Dr. and Mrs. H. D. Shankle. The prettily spread table was centered with a basket of red roses placed on a reflector wreathed with smilax. Dinner was served in six courses, with covers laid for Mr. and Mrs. Bonham, Mr. and Mrs. Ball of Minneapolis, Mrs. John Dietz, Dr. and Mrs. Shankle and little daughter, Louise; Misses Katherine, Dorris and Mabel De Valon and Mr. and Mrs. De Valon.—Muskogee Daily Phoenix.

Mrs. John Dietz and daughters, Misses Katherine and Lillian Dietz, entertained at their pretty new home on East Okmulgee avenue yesterday afternoon with an enjoyable "Thimble" party, in honor of Mrs. Charles F. Bonham, who is a guest of Mrs. H. D. Shankle. The house was decorated with red roses and chrysanthemums. The twenty guests spent the pleasant afternoon in conversing and doing pretty fancy work. At 5 o'clock the hostess served an ice course.—Muskogee Daily Phoenix.

Private Bridge Built of Cement

Mr. Fred Groves, a popular and well known farmer of the Yatesville neighborhood, is just finishing the building of a large concrete bridge over Paint creek in order that he may have easy access to his home from the pike.

To reach the big brick residence of Mr. Groves, it is necessary to cross the creek, and for some time he has been without a bridge, an ice jam carrying out a large wooden structure. A few months ago he had Engineer Kennedy of this city to prepare plans for a new concrete bridge and has had it constructed accordingly.

The structure is over 50 feet in length and has five piers in addition to the abutment piers. It is built without the usual arch given bridges, and the railing on top is made of two-inch iron pipes set firmly in the concrete and connected at the top by a pipe of the same size.

It is the largest private concrete bridge in the county.

"MORE AIR SEXTON."

The latest radical reform advocated is that one which has for its purpose the discarding of our clothing, in whole or in part, and at much more frequent intervals, than at present.

To state the reform movement in the language of its champions, the taking of air baths.

Dr. Paul W. Goldsbury and his followers insist that we wear entirely too much clothing and that practically all clothing is a menace to good health, in texture, color and construction.

Dr. Goldsbury insists that the human body is entirely too well protected against the air and that we should at least, as frequently, if not more frequently, subject the body to air baths as we now do to a water bath.

These reformers have not yet advocated discarding clothing entirely, but we need not be surprised to hear of that extra step forward being taken before long.

Custom has made, the air bath advocates claim, the wearing of clothes a necessity. Not only does man now, after centuries of use, need clothes to protect him from the sun and wind, but modesty compels it.

Dr. Goldsbury and his disciples do not yet advocate the garb of primitive man—they do not yet claim that during all the centuries of supposed advance from the customs of our "way-back" ancestors who traveled about in the altogether, we have been mistaken and were getting farther away from instead of nearer to better conditions.

The proposed change is not however, without a great deal of merit. Wearing clothes is a good thing, there can be no doubt of that, but it is not at all unlikely viewed from a standpoint of health and highly probable, viewed from the financial standpoint, that we have gone to extremes.

So far as clothing is concerned we have become entirely too civilized for the good of our health.

The body does need fresh air and the air bath proposal will meet with favor. Of late years the people have been piling on clothes with a view to comfort and looks only, disregarding the cost to health and purse, and the reform advocated by Dr. Goldsbury should not come unexpectedly.

If it accomplishes nothing more than to check the inclination "to dress" so ruinous to health and purse, it will have accomplished a great service—perhaps enough.

OF SHORT DURATION.

After only a few weeks of warfare the Balkan states are now believed to be about ready for peace.

Less than three score years ago the nations involved in the present war would not have been ready to advance their army in the time which has elapsed since actual hostilities began.

So rapid has been the progress made by all nations, however, that these days, a terrific war can be begun and practically ended in less time than it formerly took to get ready.

The ability of all nations to get ready for war—mobilize and press their troops to the front, the capacity of modern guns, and other instruments of warfare, for deadly execution as demonstrated so forcefully in the war just drawing to a close as well as in the Russo-Japanese conflict, may, after all, be the means of bringing about world peace.

War is now scarcely nothing but a dash forward—one battle and it is decided.

As a consequence all nations are, or think they are, compelled to be ready for war on an instant's notice.

The list of dead and wounded in a modern battle is appalling in its immensity. In that respect and in many others too the modern war is nothing but a battle, usually if decisive, conclusive of the war.

American Wives Don't Make Best Mothers

By Dr. ANNA I. VON SHOLLY of New York City

THE AMERICAN MOTHER IS IGNORANT OF THE PROPER CARE TO GIVE HER CHILD, AND IT IS NEITHER THE VERY RICH NOR THE VERY POOR, BUT THE GREAT BULK OF THE WOMEN WHO MOST NEED INSTRUCTION.

The dispensaries, the visiting nurses and other agencies do manage to give a certain amount of training to the poor mother, and the wealthy woman usually employs a highly trained nurse, perhaps two or three of them, and a skilled physician.

But the MAJORITY OF MOTHERS fall between these two categories. Many of them have married young and, coming from families of one or two children, have not even had the practical experience of mothering a small brother or sister. When a baby comes to this young wife she is HELPLESSLY IGNORANT.

Other women have put off their marriage for a number of years, during which they were engaged in some breadwinning occupation. They become mothers when they have reached a certain maturity, but what more of PRACTICAL KNOWLEDGE OF CHILD HYGIENE is theirs?

Poetry For Today

A REAL PHILOSOPHER.

In the evening you can see him,
Features puckered in a frown,
Juggling with stubborn figures,
Counting up and down;
Till a weary sigh escapes him
At a sum beyond his powers,
These are cares that seem to childhood
Every whit as great as ours.

But, when shades of night are casting
Round the earth a somber hand,
Climb the wooden staircase leading
Up the hill to Slumberland.
There a little man is sleeping—
One whose gentle breathing shows
All his troubles are forgotten
In the rapture of repose.

Here's a philosophic person
Whose philosophy is such
That he'll never know its value
Till he needs it overmuch.
Oh, that fairy sprite would teach us
With that magic wand, and let
We grown-ups, like little children,
Sleep—and, when we sleep, forget!

Gas Explodes Hands Burned

Friday night while Physical Director J. W. McClung was in the act of preparing the gas hot water heater for the night at the Y. M. C. A., an explosion of gas occurred which painfully burned Mr. McClung and came very near resulting seriously.

Mr. McClung was just in the act of turning off the gas when a sheet of flame shot out and almost enveloped him, burning his hands and wrists very painfully, and singeing his sweater.

By springing backward he prevented the flames from reaching his face and probably injuring his sight.

The heater is a dangerous one to regulate, and two or three near-serious accidents have resulted.

PORTO RICO'S NEW WONDER.

We hope this great medicine will yet be sold in every drug store in Porto Rico." For throat and lung troubles it has no equal. A trial will convince you of its merit. 50c and $1.00. FOR COUNTY AUDITOR

ANDA E. HENKLE.

Read the following extracts from State Examiner T. Q. Bowles' report which covers the time from May 1911 to July 1912:

"1st. The records are exceptionally well kept.
"2nd. The clerical work is excellent and the office is well systematized.

"3rd. Abstracts and Duplicates. The duplicates and abstract of same for year 1910 were carefully audited. Each taxing district was added and checked to the abstract. The work was carried to the settlement sheets and the distribution of the taxes collected checked to the various districts entitled to share in it. NO ERRORS WERE FOUND AND THE WORK APPEARS PERFECT. The February and August settlements were checked. The work on the duplicates is worthy of commendation. The work in the Auditor's office is carefully and thoroughly done. Mr. Henkle's idea of conducting the auditor's office is that of a modern business man.

"Result: System, neatness, no confusion.
"This official attends to the duties of his office and furthermore, he understands what those duties are."

I am now serving my second term. The terms are now two years instead of three years, as formerly. My first term began the third Monday of October, 1909; the second term the third Monday of October, 1911.

In consideration of the fact that the electors of this county have been willing heretofore to give the County Auditor two terms of three years each, I feel that I may with propriety ask for as much, which would be three terms of two years each.

My experience in the work the past two and a half years certainly qualify me to be of more service to the public in the future. I shall be pleased to have your continued support.

ANDA E. HENKLE.

FOR PROBATE JUDGE

A. J. KEARNEY.

To the voters of Fayette Co., Ohio:

I am a candidate in the election to be held next Tuesday for Probate Judge of Fayette county. I ask the voters to come to the polls and vote.

I ask for your support in the election because having studied law and been admitted to the practice and having been engaged in the active practice of my profession, I am confident that in that respect my qualifications are ample to discharge the duties of the office and having taught school in the county I feel that my experience in that line has qualified me in that particular line of work, so that I may be able to look after the important school work which is a part of the jurisdiction of the Probate court.

My experience as an agriculturist has kept me in close touch with the farming community, so that the requirements of the office in regard to the settlement of estates, the majority of which are landed estates, may be discharged by me to the satisfaction of those upon whom the burden of head of the family has fallen by reason of death.

For the two reasons, my experience in the practice of the law and my intimate and actual knowledge of conditions of this farming community. I feel that I will be able to conserve the interests and property of those who furnish the bulk of work to the Probate court.

I am the Democratic nominee for Probate Judge. Although endorsed by the Democratic voters in the May primary my name will appear only on the non-partisan judicial ballot. I ask your support.

A. J. KEARNEY.

OHIO HAPPENINGS

Bottles Used as Evidence.

Columbus, O., Nov. 2.—A photo of a spring wagon load of beer bottles was exhibited in the divorce proceedings of Otille Burst against John Burst, a West Side florist, before C. M. Rogers. The were empty. The husband introduced the photo averring that his wife had been intemperate to such an extent that he loaded the spring wagon full of "empties" and backing it up to the house, took the picture to convince the court of his assertions. Judge Rogers granted the divorce to the husband on the ground of gross neglect.

Pistol Battle With Yeggs.

Sandusky, O., Nov. 2.—Officers David and Scherer engaged in a pistol duel with three strangers in the yards of the Lake Shore railroad. The men held the officers at bay until a fast freight passed, when they made their escape. Neither of the officers was injured, and it is not thought that any of the strangers were hit. The men are believed to be yegmen who robbed the postoffice at the Soldiers' home.

Robbery Suspects Caught.

Columbus, O., Nov. 2.—Joseph P. Gavin, 35, of Chicago, and H. E. Campbell, of this city, were arrested at the postoffice and are held at the city prison as suspects in connection with the robbery of the Bank of Montreal at New Westminster, British Columbia, Sept. 15, 1911, when about $300,000 was stolen, pending an examination of their letters and papers, which were seized at 190 South Grant avenue.

Control of Hocking by Lake Shore?

Cleveland, O., Nov. 2.—The Lake Shore railroad has secured control of the Hocking Valley railroad from the Chesapeake & Ohio, according to reports here. Evidence of this is said to be a traffic agreement taking Hocking business away from the Erie railroad and giving it to the Lake Shore.

Nonpartisan City Election.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 2.—Election of all Cleveland's municipal officers in 1913 on a nonpartisan ballot, with the candidates contesting on their merits and not on party strength, is planned by Mayor Baker as the first great change to come under the city's new charter.

Risks Life to Save Children.

Coshocton, O., Nov. 2.—Mrs. Jackson Easter risked her life to rescue two of her children, aged 2 and 4, from their burning home, near here. She was slightly burned. The house was destroyed.

DUPONT COMPANY SUED

Accused of Monopoly and Piracy of Manufacturing Secrets.

Hartford Conn., Nov. 2.—In a suit filed against the Dupont powder trust in the United States court here, the Buckeye Powder company of Peoria, Ill., accused the Dupont company of monopoly and the piracy of manufacturing secrets, and claims damages of $1,119,957.82. As in the recent haters' boycott case, the Sherman anti-trust law, under which the action is brought, automatically doubles this sum to $3,359,373.46, and the addition of $600,000 demanded as punitive damages would mean a grand total of $3,959,373.46.

Dominican Rebels Bombard Town.

Washington, Nov. 2.—Bombardment of the town of Monte Cristi by rebels in the Dominican republic was reported to the state department from Puerto Plata. It is said that the bombardment has been going on since last Sunday. It is presumed by this time one of the naval vessels of the United States now in Dominican waters has been sent to Puerto Plata.

Rig Drawn by Wolves.

Lafayette, Ind., Nov. 2.—Riding in a buggy drawn by five wolves, Frank Yomer and Darius Young, both from Seattle, Wash., left here for New York. They left Seattle on their transcontinental trip last May and expect to reach New York before winter.

Happy Days

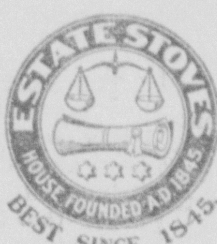

Everybody's happy with an Estate Oak in the household; seems as though this stove has a way all its own of making firm friends of the family.

"Ma" likes it 'cause it's such a gentlemanly stove to have 'round the house; no dirt—no smoke—no puffing—ever. "Tickles" "Pa", too, 'cause it has such a small appetite; once or twice a day is often enough to feed it, and soft coal is its favorite food. Of course Willie's strong for it. The Estate Oak saves him a good many trips to the coal bin, and a whole lot of luggin' ashes, too.

Fact of the matter is, an

will keep going for more than fifty hours on only one charge of soft coal, and without any other attention than to empty the ash-pan—say, once in twenty-four hours.

The stove that will do this—that is guaranteed to do it—is worth knowing, isn't it? Come in and let us show it to you; come as soon as you can.

Sherman's Remains
Rest In Vault

the center aisle the pews from the front to the rear of the church were reserved for members of the Sherman family and their immediate friends.

The coffin was placed on a dais in front of the pulpit, which was flanked by members of the Conkling Unconditionals, a political club of Utica.

The funeral cortege was most imposing, many military and civic organizations being in line. The remains were escorted to Forest Hill cemetery, where they were placed in the Babcock mausoleum, just recently completed. Mr. Sherman owns no lot of his own in the cemetery, so the body was placed in the vault pending arrangements for the funeral.

Harvey Wiley's Prediction.

Washington, Nov. 2.—Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, who has been campaigning for Wilson and Marshall throughout the country, was in Washington a brief time and, in the opinion of some political experts, laid himself open to the charge of using "artificial coloring matter" in his campaign predictions. "Wilson and Marshall will get all the electoral votes," said the doctor. "Neither Roosevelt nor Taft will get a state. Roosevelt will get more popular votes than Taft in my opinion."

FLAGGED TRAIN WITH SHIRT.

Tearing his shirt from his back an Ohio man flagged a train and saved it from a wreck, but H. T. Alston, Raleigh, N. C., once prevented a wreck with Electric Bitters. "I was in a terrible plight when I began to use them," he writes, "my stomach, head, back and kidneys were all badly affected and my liver was in bad condition, but four bottles of Electric Bitters made me feel like a new man." A trial will convince you of their matchless merit for any stomach, liver or kidney trouble. Price 50 cents at Blackmer & Tanquary.

ASK ANYONE WHO KNOWS

OLIVER S. NELSON

Candidate for Sheriff of Fayette County

State Examiner Thos. Q. Bowles has just completed an examination of this office and says in his official report on file in the Auditor's office:

"The accrued fees were checked into the cash book; all fees paid were charged on cash book and at the end of each quarter the proper amounts were paid into the Treasury.

"The cash book is in excellent condition and a model of good book-keeping; in fact, all the records of this office show clear, comprehensive entries and the DEPUTY, on whom devolves the duties of keeping same, is to be congratulated on his system.

"The quarterly expense reports are properly itemized; the service for which each charge is made is stated and an analysis of these accounts show that there are no unnecessary charges and the expense is kept down to the minimum."

CANDIDATE FOR PROBATE JUDGE

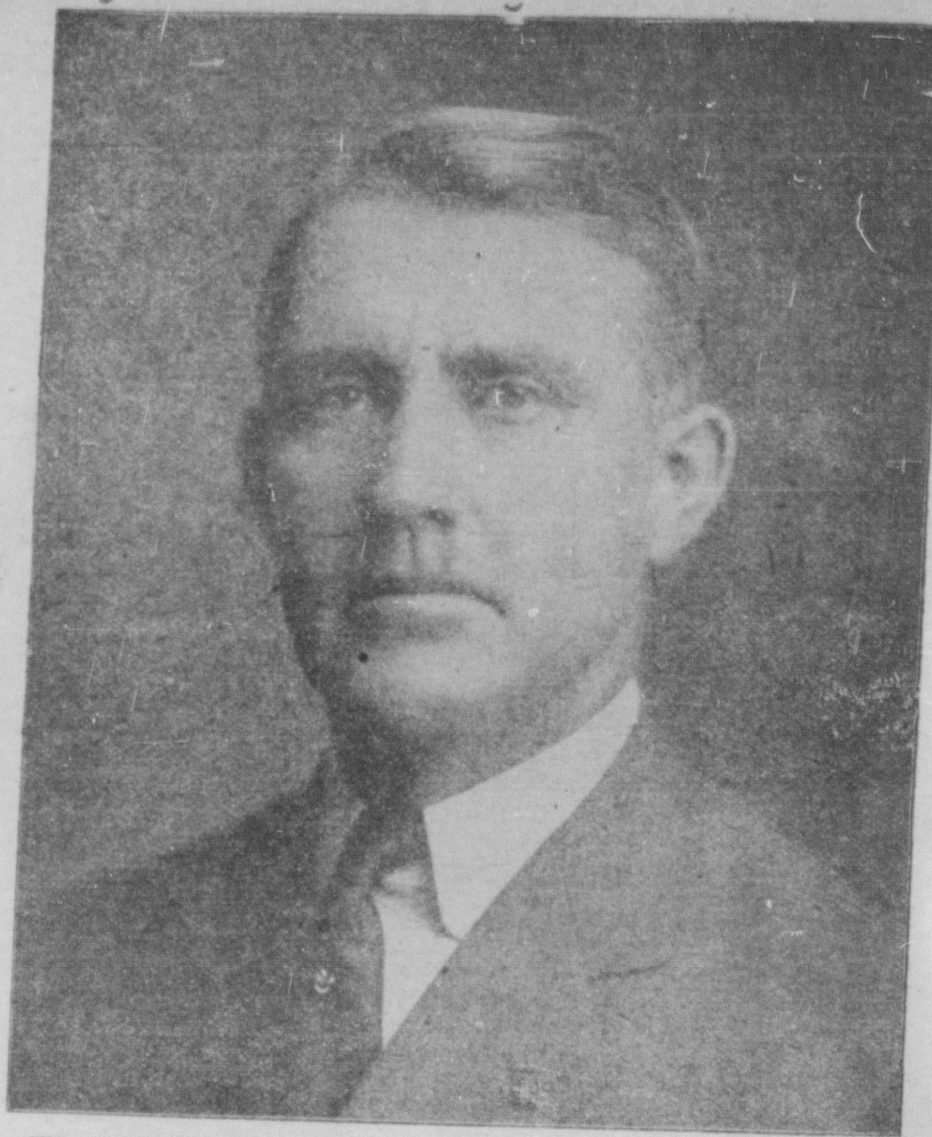

TO THE VOTERS OF FAYETTE COUNTY:

I stand on my official record. If I have been a competent, capable, conscientious, courteous, efficient and honest official it will be taken as a compliment to have your vote and support for Probate Judge in the ensuing election.

Very respectfully,

A. O. PATTON

Dog Which Saw South Pole

Here is a picture of "Oberst," a dog who has been to the South Pole, with his best friend, Oscar Wisting. Both were members of the Amundsen expedition. When the five men of that expedition set out on the final march for the pole, they were accompanied by fifty-two dogs and had sledges and provisions for four months. Eleven of the dogs survived the whole journey and returned safely to Framheim, the base camp. "Oberst" ("Colonel") was the oldest and biggest of the pack.

STAKED HIS LIFE ON CARDS

A New York Waiter Kills Himself on Losing in Solitaire Game.

New York.—Robert Schweizer, a waiter out of work, determined his fate by playing solitaire in his lodgings and killed himself with gas. Beside the bed on which his body lay when it was discovered, he had pulled up a table. On it lay cards laid out so that they showed that he had been "stuck" trying to carry through the game of Canfield.

Beside the cards lay a penciled tally on a sheet of paper. It indicated that he had tried the game thirteen times unsuccessfully before putting a gas tube in his mouth and ending his life. Under the tally was scrawled: "I lose. My time has come. R. S."

No Fly Specks for Iowa Food.

Do fly specks make food impure? State Food and Dairy Commissioner Barney of Iowa says so and promises prosecutions under the state pure food law against all grocers, butchers and other merchants who expose foodstuffs to flies.

Commissioner Barney holds that under the Iowa pure food law foodstuffs so exposed are in fact adulterated and that merchants who offer them for sale after such exposure are liable to prosecution and punishment. Screens will have to be placed over all foodstuffs offered for sale if Commissioner Barney is successful in his prosecutions. He says he has been figuring all summer on some way to compel the screening of fruits and vegetables in open markets.—Bakers' Weekly.

Wanted Pay for Doll.

The maiming of a china doll recently caused the war department to conduct a mass of correspondence and issue an order for a claim board to pass upon the question of damages.

The doll belonged to seven-year-old Marion Coggeshall, daughter of Murray H. Coggeshall, a New York banker, who has a summer home at Cape Elizabeth, and was broken by concussion incident to heavy artillery practice.

The child made her claim without the knowledge of her parents. When Mrs. Coggeshall learned what had occurred she withdrew her little daughter's claim.

In Women's Interests.

Miss Lucy Goode White has been elected president of the California League for the Protection of Motherhood, which was organized with 100 charter members. It is not planned to make this a permanent organization, but it is to exist only long enough to obtain the passage of a state law pensioning widowed mothers with dependent children and providing for pecuniary assistance during enforced idleness to women who work to support themselves and their children.

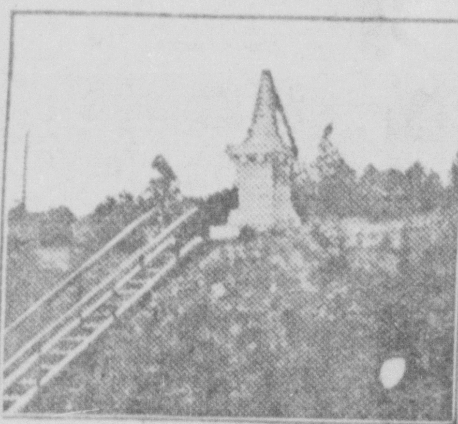

Dog-Stealing Syndicate.

New York.—A dog-stealing syndicate, whose members make money by collecting rewards for lost canines, has been unearthed by the police here.

SPARROW SAILS 3,000 MILES

The most interesting traveler that has reached the port of New York lately was an English sparrow that flew aboard the steamship Austrian Prince at Newcastle, England, and made the 3,000 mile voyage to this country in the rigging. Captain Davies said that the bird flew down to the deck for its food and at night perched on the girders in the stoke-hole, where it was warm.

WHERE EAST AND WEST MEET

This picture shows the boundary stone on the Trans-Siberian railway in the Ural mountains which was erected not long ago. On one side of the stone is painted, in Russian characters, "Europe," and on the other side "Asia." The picture was taken in somewhat novel circumstances, the operator being on the footplate of the engine of the east-bound Trans-Siberian express, two of his friends holding on to him in order to maintain him in position as the train was rushing along at full speed.

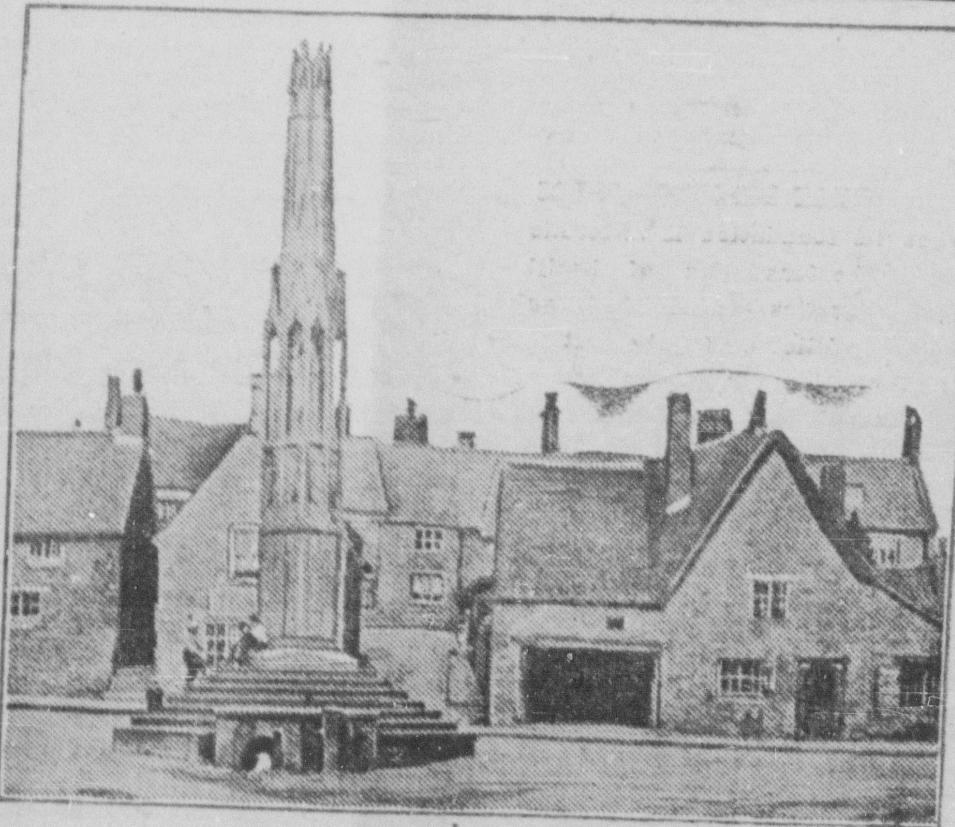

BUSHMEN'S SECRET SOCIETY

Among the Bushmen of Australia there is a secret society, the requirements for entrance and the severity of initiation to which are probably more severe than to any other society in the world. Among other requisites to membership are self-inflicted wounds, evidence of which must be preserved in the form of scars that permanently mark the breast of the initiate. These scars are made by wounds reaching all the way across the chest and which have been made deep ridges by keeping them open until they have healed without closing up. Great series of these wounds mark the breast of many a Bushman warrior and his honor among his people depends largely upon the number and severity of the wounds as recorded by the scars which they have left.

LAND OF MANY INVENTORS

If all the printed patents stored in the patent office building were laid end to end, they would reach almost three times around the world. Placed in a pile ten feet square, they would form a mass as high as the Washington monument. The officials of the interior department are wondering where these papers are to be placed in years to come, as the stock accumulates at the rate of 100 feet of shelving a week. In order to relieve the congestion and to afford safer and better storage, the secretary of the interior has submitted to congress an estimate of $220,000 for an appropriation for the construction of an additional wing in the court of the patent building.

Memorial to Queen Eleanor

Of the fifteen crosses erected by Edward I. of England to the memory of his queen, Eleanor, but three now remain, and the handsomest and best preserved of these is that at Geddington, here pictured. When Eleanor died at Harby, not far from Lincoln, Edward brought her body back to London and at every place where the procession halted for the night he caused a memorial cross to be built. The Geddington cross is divided into three stories. Of these the first is solid and between the shafts, on a curved face; it is carved with beautiful diaper work of roses, and with six shields displaying the arms of England and the queen's arms of Castile, Leon and Ponthieu, which she had inherited in right of her mother. Above this is the arcaded story containing the sculptured figures of the queen, planned to face the supporting shafts of the canopies above. The canopies are surmounted by crocketed gables, and behind them is a tier of pinnacles similarly decorated. The third story is composed of a cluster of plain pinnacles topped with small gables crocketed and decorated.

SET UP BOTTLES AS GODS

Burmese Natives, Relieved by "Pain Killer," Accepted What They Thought Was Deity.

There are many people in this country who are given to a worship of patent medicines; but it remained for the East to furnish an instance of actual idolatry of empty medicine bottles.

An American missionary came upon a village in Burma where an epidemic was raging. Having with him a quantity of New England "pain killer" and thinking he might at least allay the suffering somewhat, he went from house to house administering the remedy, and left a number of bottles to be used after he had gone. When he returned to the village some months later he was met by the head man of the community, who cheered and delighted him by this intelligence; "Teacher, we have come over to your side; the medicine did us so much good that we have accepted your god." Overjoyed at this news, the missionary was conducted to the house of the head man, who opened the door of a room and showed him the pain killer bottles solemnly arranged in a row upon the shelf; and before them the whole company immediately prostrated themselves in worship.

Dog Worth Owning.

J. L. Sappington of Centralia will be protected from the cold this winter by a coonskin overcoat made from hides of coons which he caught with his famous coon dog Buck.

The coat, which Sappington was wearing, was made from the skins of 30 of the 132 of the ringtailed species which he and his canine have captured in the last three years. Sappington sent the skins to a furrier with instructions to use only the best part of the hides. The consequence is his coat is the best and finest that can be made and differs from the coonskin garments of this kind usually seen.

Three years ago Sappington bagged 52 coons. Two years ago he captured 48, last year but 16 and so far this year he has captured 16.—Fulton correspondence St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

GREATEST 1912 FOOTBALL ATTRACTION

Jim Thorpe, Noted Carlisle Athlete.

Glen Warner, coach of the Carlisle Indian eleven, skilled above any of his rivals in the ability to pack stadiums where his eleven appear, has this year in the presence of Jim Thorpe the greatest drawing card on the football field.

Thorpe, fresh from his triumphs in the Olympic games at Stockholm, is now the best-known athlete in the world. He would be famous were he a white man, but to be the most notable of all-around performers, and also an Indian, thus carrying all the romance that goes with aboriginal extraction, is going to mean a rush to see Thorpe perform on the gridiron.

This is a big consideration at Carlisle, where there is no athletic association to furnish funds to support the team, no rich graduates to come to the rescue. The government does not make any allowance for the training of the squad nor the support of football.

This puts the proposition sharply up to Warner, and he has shown his ability to make good. His fast flying fighting Indian teams have for the past decade proved the best drawing cards of all football eleven.

Outside of the turnout for special games like Yale-Harvard, Yale-Princeton, Harvard-Princeton, Army-Navy, Pennsylvania-Michigan, etc., no eleven attracts the multitudes who go to see the Indians, and this year with Thorpe as a member the interest will be still greater.

Thorpe is captain of the team, and is rated among the greatest players the institution ever produced. He is a fighting tactician, cool, but furious. He can do everything. He is a vicious tackler, great line buckler, wonderful runner with the ball in an open field and a master drop kicker.

The triumphs of the tacturn redskin at Stockholm are going to yield a rich harvest of dividends to Carlisle.

Saloon Opens In Dry County

It was reported in this city Friday that a saloon had been opened in Centerville, a small town in Highland county near Leesburg, and that the proprietor was doing an extensive business.

While the county is said to be dry, it is claimed the proprietor claims to have the right through some technicality. Whether the report is correct, has not been learned.

"Why do you say 'A blush crept over the face of the fair plaintiff'?" asks the editor.

"Because," explains the society editor, "there was so much powder on her face the blush had to creep or else it would raise too much dust!"

The Girls' Glee club of the Washington C. H. High school was organized this week under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Sheen, musical supervisor of the public schools. Miss Dorothy Saxton was elected manager of the club.

Twenty-two girls are included in the organization and the voices are of unusually good timber.

Last winter the Girls' Glee club added well rendered choruses to the pleasure of many musical entertainments and will undoubtedly be as generous this season.

The club includes:

First soprano—Ada Woodward, Dorothy Saxton, Senneth Kellough, Urcel Porter, Margaret Mark, Mary Collins.

Second Soprano—Dorothy Fullerton, Emily Palmer, Mildred Kidd, Jean Fitzgerald, Mary Weaver, Jeanette Weaver.

First Alto—Lucy Edna Pine, Margaret McDonald, Mabel Kidd, Mary Tysor, Naomi Rowan.

Got Lodging And Then Left

John Wilson, a new man in the city, applied for work on the C. H. & D. railroad this week, and upon promise of a job stopped at a local boarding house Thursday night, and next morning had his dinner packed and started for work, but was looking for an outboud freight when the police nabbed him.

The man was later released because he claimed he had received a better offer from the B. & O. road, but it is claimed he hurriedly left the city for parts unknown.

TEMPLE CORNERSTONE LAID THIS MORNING

In the presence of some ten or fifteen members of the Masonic lodge, the Masonic Temple cornerstone was laid Saturday morning about ten o'clock, without ceremonies.

The cornerstone was again laid at the northeast corner fronting on Main street, and two boxes were placed in the receptacle in the stone, one of the boxes being that removed from the destroyed Temple, and the other a new copper box about as large as the old one, and containing numerous articles.

Among the articles were five newspapers, including the Fire Extra of the Washington Daily Herald of December 31, and another issue of January 11th, 1912.

Many Masonic records were also included in the box, and three photographs, one of the temple before it was destroyed, one during the fire and one of the ruins.

Work on the front portion of the walls will now be carried forward by the builders.

Advertisements of persons desiring work, if limited to 10 words, will be carried free of charge. No business advt. inserted without pay.

In asking for the votes of the people in my race for election to the House of Representatives, I do so with a full understanding of the vast importance of the office, especially at this time, and I fully realize the great work to be done in the sessions of that body because of the recent adoption of numerous amendments to the Constitution. READS LETTERS TO JURY

Prosecution in Dynamite Cases Has an Irksome Job.

Indianapolis, Nov. 2.—The district attorney began the presentation of letters to the jury in the dynamiting cases, beginning with the ordering of the strike against the American Bridge company in 1905, when many letters passed between officers of the iron workers relative to the open-shop policy of the company. There are about 1,000 letters to be read to the grand jury.

Some of the letters showed that the union was having trouble in holding some of its members in line. A letter from George Hagerty of Phillipsburg, N. J., to McNamara, Dec. 11, 1905, said representatives of the employers were getting union men to tear up their union cards and go to work.

Tariff and Trusts the Theme of the Democratic Nominee.

Rochester, N. Y., Nov. 2.—Governor Woodrow Wilson spoke in a convention hall and Shubert theater before cheering thousands of Rochester Democrats. He spoke an hour in convention hall and nearly the same length of time in the theater to those who could not get into the first meeting. His speech dealt with the tariff and trusts. Governor Wilson saying that there could never be a free government of the people until there is a just settlement of the tariff question and an absolute settlement of the trust problem.

Lieut. Becker Drops Lawyers Arrangements Not Given Out

Threats Made Against Life of Prosecutor Whitman.

New York, Nov. 2.—A positive statement came from an authoritative source that Lawyers John F. McIntyre and John W. Hart, counsel for Lieutenant Becker, ceased their active connection with the Becker case on the sentencing of the former policeman to the electric chair for the murder of Herman Rosenthal. Neither Mr. McIntyre and Mr. Hart will take part in any appeal which Becker contemplates bringing before a higher court.

Despite this statement, Lawyer Grant, the latest addition to the Becker counsel, expressed the opinion that Mr. McIntyre at least will participate in the preparation of the appeal.

Although District Attorney Whitman has paid little attention to the three score or more threatening letters he has received since Rosenthal was murdered, Detective Thomas, attached to the district attorney's office, is taking enough stock in one threatening letter which the detective had with him to go up to the Grand Central station with a squad of detectives today and be on the outlook for "four gunmen" who, according to the letter the detective carries, are due from Chicago to kill Mr. Whitman.

Wilson Orders Parade Off.

New York, Nov. 2.—The parade, in which 70,000 men were to march up Fifth avenue and be reviewed by Governor Wilson, was called off after Mr. Wilson had sent this telegram: "Hope that arrangements for parade in New York city will be canceled as evidence of our deep sympathy with the family and friends of the late vice president. I know that this is your feeling."
